ARRIVALS

One Hundred Cases of New and Choice Meachandise.

The result of our recent spot cash purchases. They are just now being opened and placed upon our counters for your inspection. That you will be surprised is putting it mildly. This sale will prove a real, genuine money-saving one to every man, woman and child. We have bought nothing but reliable merchandise, and they will be sold to you at prices such as have never been heard of in this country. In fact we have not only concluded to sell these goods, on a basis of prices in accordance with which they were bought, but being fully aware of the conditions as they exist among the people of this county, we say that in order to keep up our trade, and keep our salespeople busy to sell these goods to you for less money than we could ordinarily handle them for. This means that you are buying goods cheaper of us than any house EAST or WEST will sell them for. In fact there are but FEW merchants whose goods do not cost more than our retail price will be to you this season. The Chance of a Lifetime to buy goods at these prices and you do not want to let it go by without taking advantage of them.

home in Great Bend, October 3, 1894. Funeral services were held at the Congregational church October 5th, at 3 p. m. The services were conducted by you don't know what a blessing has county treasure.

Dr. J. C. Hall of the M. E. church, came into my home!' Her life and Bond of Gat assisted by Rev. L. C. Schnacke of the Congregational church. The sermon was one that went home to each heart, and the occasion was the saddest ever witnessed in Great Bend. All who knew Mrs. Day had a great deal of and leaves a memory to her children sympathy and respect for her, knowing which will grow in its benedictions as how sad was her lot and how bravely the years pass away. She had a multishe met her many great trials. To tude of friends who cling to her with those loving children who were with her and ministered to their mother's needs during her last illness, the blow is a great trial. They have indeed lost their best earthly friend. The sympathy that is extended to them will not lessen the greif but will be a source. the greif but will b of comfort nevertheless. Squire Lester, a farmer living 15 miles west of here, weighed 22 hogs, and afterwards fed them exactly 35 bushels of cracked wheat. Today he brought the hogs to this city and sold them at 5 cents a pound on foot.

When weighed for sale it was found that they had gained 1,100 pounds. It cost Mr. Lester 5 cents a bushel to have his wheat cracked, but even this left him a margin of more than $1.52 a bushel for wheat worth only about 45 cents in the local market.

He says that far better results can be obtained by having the wheat cracked and then moistened before be-The following resolutions were pre- ing fed. This is the first authentic test that has been made in this section of the state, although a number of farmers are feeding wheat to their hogs, and say that the result will prove satisfactory.
